CONSENT DECREE AND FINAL JUDGMENT

Civil Action No.
20-cv-473 (EK)(RLM)

ERIC R. KOMITEE, United States District Judge:

WHEREAS, the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA commenced this action against defendants Nicholas Palumbo, Natasha Palumbo, Ecommerce National, LLC d/b/a Tollfreedeals.com, and SIP Retail d/b/a sipretail.com (collectively, “Defendants”) by filing a Complaint in this Court on January 28, 2020 (Dkt. No. 1, “Complaint”);

WHEREAS, the Complaint alleges claims for relief under the Fraud Injunction Statute, 18 U.S.C. § 1345;

WHEREAS, on February 4, 2020, the Court issued, on the consent of Defendants, a Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause (the “TRO”), which, among other things, temporarily restrained Defendants from providing, or causing others to provide, call termination services for calls terminating in the United States on behalf of a group of enumerated companies (Dkt. No. 18, Temporary Restraining Order);

WHEREAS, while the TRO was in effect, if Defendants received any notification identifying fraudulent voice-over-internet protocol (“VoIP”) calls transmitted by Defendants,

Defendants were required to terminate any existing contracts with the companies or individuals identified as the source of those calls;

WHEREAS, on February 19, 2020, Defendants informed the United States that they received a notification identifying “Yodel” as a source of fraudulent calls transmitted by Defendants;

WHEREAS, on February 20, 2020, Defendants made an application to the Court to exempt Yodel from the provision of the TRO requiring Defendants to terminate its contract with Yodel, and the Court issued an Order granting Defendants’ application (Dkt. No. 33, Order Amending the Temporary Restraining Order);

WHEREAS on February 26, 2020 Defendants filed an Answer denying the allegations in the Complaint (Dkt. No. 35, Answer);

WHEREAS, on March 3, 2020, the Court conducted a hearing at which Defendants were required to show cause why a preliminary injunction, pursuant to Fed R. Civ. P. 65 and as requested by the United States, should not be granted;

WHEREAS, on March 24, 2020, after considering briefing from the parties, as well as 17 declarations submitted by the parties, including declarations submitted on behalf of the United States from law enforcement officers involved in the investigation of this matter, and declarations of Nicholas Palumbo, Natasha Palumbo, John Darymple and Dean Hansen, submitted on Defendants’ behalf, the Court entered a Memorandum and Order granting the United States’ application for a preliminary injunction against Defendants (Dkt. No. 66, Preliminary Injunction);

WHEREAS, the Preliminary Injunction banned Defendants’ “continued provision of any call termination services for calls terminating in the United States and from providing call-back services” to any entity, including Yodel, (Id.);

WHEREAS, the Defendants consent to entry of this Consent Decree and Final Judgment without any admission of liability or wrongdoing;

WHEREAS, this Consent Decree and Final Judgment is not intended, and shall not be construed, as a waiver of any rights and defenses Defendants may assert in any other proceeding, including but not limited to Defendants' rights and defenses under the United States Constitution and all such rights are hereby reserved with respect to such proceedings;

WHEREAS, this Consent Decree and Final Judgment is also not intended, and shall not be construed, by Plaintiff, the United States of America, and the Defendants hereto as a waiver of any claims Defendants have asserted or may assert in any other proceeding relating to assets seized from Defendants, including, but not limited to United States v. Any and All Funds up to $389,800.00, et al., No. 1:20-cv-02796 (N.D. Ga.), relating to assets seized from Defendants, including, but not limited to the following asset IDs: 20-USP-000874, 20-USP-000875, and 20-USP-000878;

WHEREAS, the United States and the Defendants wish to settle this action upon the following terms without further litigation, and the Defendants agree that this Court may enter and enforce this Consent Decree and Final Judgment against them; THEREFORE, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1345 and the inherent power of this Court, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

- A. The Defendants, their agents, officers, employees, successors, affiliates, and all other persons and entities in active concert or participation with them, are permanently enjoined from:

- C. Within five (5) business days after the entry of this Consent Decree and Final Judgment, Defendants shall provide copies of this Consent Decree and Final Judgment to all of their customers for whom they provided at any time since 2016 (1) United States call termination services, (2) United States direct-inward-dial services, or (3) United States toll-free call origination services; and to all entities (a) with whom Defendants have or have had a contractual relationship for automated or least-cost call routing at any time since 2016, and (b) from whom Defendants acquired direct-inward-dial numbers or toll-free numbers at any time since 2016. No. 66), or (3) the Temporary Restraining Order, dated February 4, 2020 (Dkt. No. 18).
- J. Defendants hereby agree to waive, release, and remit any and all claims, either directly or indirectly against the United States and its agencies, employees, representatives, and agents, including but not limited to the Department of Justice, the Social Security Administration's Office of Inspector General, the United States Postal Inspection Service, and the employees or staff of any of the foregoing agencies, with respect to this action.
- K. This Consent Decree and Final Judgment may be signed by the parties in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitute one of the same Consent Decree and Final Judgment. Signatures delivered by facsimile transmission, or as .pdf attachments to emails, shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Consent Decree and Final Judgment.
- L. This Consent Decree and Final Judgment shall constitute a final judgment and order in this action.
